Letter of Recommendation

To Whom It May Concern,

Molly has a can-do (and will-do) attitude, which I greatly appreciated during our time working together at ThorWorks. In a fast-paced environment where deadlines constantly shift, and priorities frequently change, she consistently stayed on top of things and was always ready to step in wherever needed. Molly is the ideal teammate—highly collaborative, adaptable, and skilled at tailoring her communication style to suit different personalities and working styles.

Her creativity is exceptional, and she has an incredible knack for bringing ideas to life. Whether translating concepts from non-creatives into stunning artwork or coming up with her own imaginative solutions, she consistently exceeded expectations. Molly's ability to think on her feet, coupled with her talent for working seamlessly with people at all levels, makes her an invaluable asset to any team. Wherever she goes, her skills and attitude will undoubtedly leave a lasting impact.

Sincerely,
